Two New Felony Charges Filed Against Jeffery Glazebrook

Note: A sound bite on this topic will be available shortly at: www.ago.ne.gov

(Lincoln, Neb) Attorney General Jon Bruning today announced two new charges were filed against Jeffery Glazebrook, 51, in Saunders County District Court. Glazebrook is charged with tampering with a witness and making terroristic threats, both Class IV felonies.

“In view of multiple jurors, Mr. Glazebrook threatened a witness during his trial,” said Bruning. “He deserves to be held accountable for those crimes.”

If convicted, Glazebrook faces a possible minimum of 20 years and maximum of 120 years in prison on the two charges.

Because of Glazebrook’s previous felony convictions, he qualifies for habitual criminal status. Nebraska's habitual criminal statutes provide for enhanced mandatory minimum and maximum sentences.
